Muntjacs Blog

This week, Muntjacs have been making pottery pieces, playing the piano, creating shapes in gymnastics and learning all about mean and algebraic equations in maths.

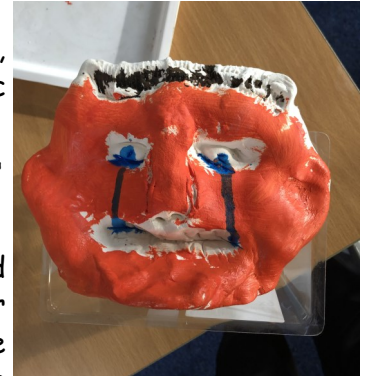

In English, the children have been reading a book called 'The Promise' by Nicola Davis.

It's a fantastic story about a young girl who has to steal to get food and money to survive. One day, she steals a bag from a woman who tells her she can have it if she promises to plant it. The girl is confused until she opens the bag to reveal lots of acorns. She plants them all around the dull city and people love it, planting their own seeds. The girl then moves around to different places. However,

I will leave it up to you to find out the ending.

It has been a busy week for all the children in school and at home. Everyone has put in the effort to get the work completed on time.

Please rest up (parents and children) and have a lovely half term,
Mr Starling.
