I was so happy to receive these poems while playing tennis at lunchtime yesterday:

Every day when I wake up
 I am so excited to go to school.
 To learn in a wonderful small school
 The best school ever called Wilden!

By Izzy

Sun or Rain I turn up every morning,
 Even if I can't stop yawning,
 My education is important to me
 English is fun
 Maths I adore
 But preferably do History more.
 Wilden is like a second home to me.
 The teachers are always there
 And there must be happiness in the air.
 Thank you to all the supporting staff at Wilden.

Wilden School is like a rainbow,
 everlasting with fun.
 Pulling children and wonderful adults closer everyday, full of care and friendly faces.
 Beautiful sightings and uniforms like a diamond, the exciting lessons go on.

Message from Mrs Hutchinson

I cannot believe it is the end of the first half-term. Time has flown by so quickly. I am so impressed with the pupils' efforts and attitudes to learning and what has been achieved in the first half-term. It was lovely to welcome two governors to the school on Tuesday morning and show them some of the pupils' work and to see lessons in action. We were all impressed with the pupils' engagement in lessons. The staff have provided the pupils with some amazing learning experiences this term – I loved the UFOs in the photographs of the school grounds, used as stimulus for writing! I want to thank the whole staff for their commitment to the school and your children; it truly is a caring family here at Wilden. I am looking forward to welcoming prospective new parents to our Open Morning on Saturday 9th November at 10am. Have a wonderful break and we look forward to welcoming back pupils on Tuesday 29th October.

A snippet from Black History Month - October: 'I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character'.
